

FACULTIES – The Faculty of Letters

The Faculty of Letters has the following three departments:

Department of English Language and Literature (文学部・英語英米文学科)

Department of Japanese Language and Literature (文学部・日本語日本文学科)

Department of Communication Studies (文学部・コミュニケーション学科)

The Department of English Language and LiteratureIntroduction

The Department of English Language and Literature offers various courses in British and American literature, English linguistics, and the cultures and society of Britain and the United States. From the first to the third year, students take English language classes taught by native speakers as well as Japanese teachers. The purpose of the department's four-year program is to help students develop their intellectual interests and creativity. Ferris graduates will be able to engage in their post-graduation careers and social lives positively and with an independent, critical outlook.
